AMTek Press Release

March 14th, 2011

AMTek has recently added a new distributor for representation in the European countries of Poland, Belarus, Czech Republic, Hungary, Romania, Slovakia, Bulgaria, Latvia, Lithuania, and Ukraine. Weindich Bastra has recently agreed to an AMTek distributor relationship for the marketing, sales, and service support of the AMTek line of Industrial Microwave equipment. Weindich Bastra is an established distributor in the industrial food processing industry to these countries, for over the past 20 years. The company represents numerous lines of industrial food processing equipment into the retail and industrial food processing and preparing industry. Weindich Bastra supports a full staff of sales personnel and service technicians in support of these markets.

Jerzey Weindich is the owner of Weindich Bastra, and we gladly welcome his company to the international team of AMTek distribution.

Weindich Bastra will represent the AMTek equipment this fall at the Polagra Food Tech trade show in Poznan, Poland September the 12th thru the 15th.

Best Regards –
