AMTek Press Release

August 27th, 2013

AMTek has just recently added a new distributor for representation in the South American country of Chile. Alfa Group has agreed to an AMTek distributor position for the marketing, sales, and service support of the AMTek line of Industrial Microwave equipment into the Chile marketplace.

Alfa Chilena S.A. is an established distributor in the industrial food processing industry, for over the past 60 years. The company represents numerous lines of industrial food processing equipment manufacturers into the food processing industry of Chile. Alfa Chilena S.A. supports a full staff of sales personnel and service technicians in support of these industries.

We welcome our new partners for the AMTek line of microwave equipment!

Best Regards –
Timothy Scheurs
